Terms and Conditions of Business

1. Unless otherwise agreed by us in writing, these conditions of sale apply to all sales entered into by us, and these conditions shall override and supersede any conditions of purchase stipulated by the buyer, unless and to the extent that any such conditions of the buyer have been specifically agreed in writing by a partner.
2. In no case shall the property of the goods pass to the buyer until the price for the same has been paid in full to us. In the event of a default by the buyer in payment of the purchase price in accordance with these conditions, we shall be entitled (without prejudice to any other rights or remedies) to repossess the goods at any time after such default. Where a business ceases to trade and the goods supplied by us have been used or re-sold BJRsas expects the liquidator/receiver to hold funds in reimbursement for such goods.
3. The company will not be liable in law for any arrangements proposed by representatives or staff, relating to supply, delivery, returns or payment (BJRsas do not guarantee delivery dates and cannot be held responsible for loss of production due to non-delivery of goods) unless they are confirmed in writing within fourteen days signed by a partner.
4. Prices are those ruling at date of dispatch. (Orders valued at £5.00 or under will be charged at the minimum invoice charge of £5.00). Delivery by express carrier will be charged at carriers current rates.
5. All quotations are subject to goods offered being unsold and available at the receipt of order.
6. Claims for damage shortage or non-delivery will not be entertained unless both carrier and the firm are advised in writing within three days of dispatch shown on delivery note or invoice. BJRsas do not accept responsibility for the quality of goods supplied, although every effort will be made to ensure manufacturers standards are complied with. Goods returned for credit will be subject to a handling charge of 20% (and all carriages).
7. The invoice number and date must be quoted when returning goods for credit under complaint. Goods returned under complaint will be returned to manufacturer for inspection and report.
8. Goods returned direct to the firm should be advised by an advice or returns note forwarded under separate cover.
9. The firm will not be liable for goods returned by any other means unless receipt, acknowledgement or credit note has been issued within four weeks from date of return.
10. PAYMENT OF ACCOUNTS is due not later than the end of the month following the date of invoice.
11. The firm reserve the right to charge interest at the rate of 3% above minimum lending rate of the Bank Of England per month on all overdue accounts.
12. All accounts over60 days, High Court or County Court action will be taken without further notice.
